

LFNP

The Law Firm for Non-Profits®

Helping Good People Do Good Things

For over two decades,
non-profits throughout the United States have turned to and relied on

The Law Firm for Non-Profits
for superior legal and business guidance.

Your work... our expertise.

The attorneys of The Law Firm for Nonprofits are passionate about supporting, advocating for and partnering with non-profits and the people behind them. Our expertise comes from decades of working with charitable organizations of all kinds. We share their – and your – commitment to and passion for improving the world, their one communities, and individual lives, one person or cause at a time.

How do we do it?

We are committed to the success of the non-profit sector. Our personal knowledge and expertise in the “business” of non-profits allows us to understand the struggles and day-to-day concerns of non-profits. We become participants in their mission and act effectively as their advocates.

Your vision, only better.

We translate a client’s vision into language and practice that satisfy the requirements of the I.R.S. and state regulators. We help make it possible for our clients to expand upon and improve their programs, making the world a better place while protecting their reputations and missions, each step of the way.

Your trusted advisor.

We provide our clients with practical and usable solutions to their legal needs. We also give our colleagues in business, accounting and other areas of law peace of mind knowing they have made a smart referral to The Law Firm for Non-Profits to their own clients.

818.623.9898 | www.lfnp.com

LFNP

The Law Firm for Non-Profits®

Helping Good People Do Good Things

The Law Firm for Non-Profits provides a full range of legal services for non-profit organizations, including:

- Formation and tax exemption for new non-profits
- Revenue generation and issues related to for-profit subsidiaries and social enterprises
- Self-dealing, compensation and other insider transactions
- Ensuring compliance with tax and corporate laws and regulations
- Private foundation and operating foundation concerns
- Related and unrelated business income and taxation issues
- Structural changes including mergers, acquisitions, subsidiaries (for profit and non-profit) and dissolutions
- Revisions of bylaws and changes in governance structure
- Donor and donation issues and questions
- Director liability and fiduciary duty
- Legal and operations reviews and audits
- IRS audits and state regulator investigations
- Consulting and advising on sponsorships, joint ventures and other special circumstances

818.623.9898 | Fax: 818.286.1967

4148 Shadyglade Avenue | Studio City, CA 91604-1637

law@lfnp.com | www.lfnp.com

We're friendly, approachable and experienced...
We're the supportive partners your non-profit needs to launch, grow and make a difference.

MEET OUR MANAGING ATTORNEY:

ARTHUR RIEMAN, J.D., M.B.A., is managing attorney and principal of The Law Firm for Non-Profits. Widely recognized as an expert in the area of non-profit and exempt organization law, Arthur has grown the practice to offer a broad range of legal services for non-profits across the country and the world. He has also served as a corporate lawyer with multinational firms; as a plaintiff's employment and civil rights attorney; as general counsel for a direct marketing company; and as a start-up guru launching telecommunications companies.

His work with non-profits goes back more than two decades and he is active with many local, regional and international non-profits and NGOs. Named by California's San Fernando Business Journal as one of the Top 25 Attorneys in the San Fernando Valley, Arthur frequently speaks and writes on legal topics related to the operation of non-profit organizations.

